

Midlothian Friends Meeting
Meeting for Worship with Intention for Business
Minutes

Twenty-Fourth Day, Sixth Month 2012 – 11:00 a.m.

The clerk welcomed Friends to our fourth Meeting for Worship with Intention for Business held during our regular worship hour. He shared guidelines for business meeting and welcomed the young Friends in attendance. Brian Buniva read two queries during the opening silence.

Attendance: Jim Beran, Howard Brod, Cate Grove, Chuck Grove, Brian McCutcheon, Robyn Johnson, Sheila Johnston, Raleigh Johnston, Emily Keenum, Will Keenum, Sam Keenum, Judy Glynn, Brian Buniva, Sophia Duncan, Olivia Duncan, Ann Duncan, Nora Duncan, Susan Umidi, and Tom DeWeerd

Spiritual Nurture Committee:

The state of the meeting report was accepted with a few revisions. Business meeting, in support of comments made by an RE committee member, recommended that at the fall business meeting we will discuss how RE committee members and the RE needs of the meeting can be supported. This document will be sent out with the minutes for everyone to see.

Treasurer:

The treasurer's report was given and reflected on. Minor corrections were made and the Clerk thanked the treasurer for his hard work. The treasurer reported that our insurance covered the repair costs of the wiring to the well pump, that was caused by a lightening strike. We learned that we are at 89% of where we need to be for our budget. The budget will be sent along with the minutes for everyone to see.

Financial Stewardship Committee:

A handout was discussed showing the building and grounds budget for 2013. This reflects an accurate cost of what we need for the meeting house. At the next business meeting, approval will be sought. This document will be sent out with the minutes for everyone to see.

Building and Grounds Committee Announcement:

July 14th is out next clean up day. Lunch will be provided.

Peace and Social Action Committee:

The Thrifty Quaker funds were used this month to purchase a stove for a church who is feeding the homeless. Thrifty Quaker is doing well providing at least $2,000 per month to charities. VICPP will be determining the legislative priorities for next year. The committee would like to sponsor a gathering at Midlothian Meeting in conjunction with Richmond Meeting to help determine these priorities.

Meeting closed with silence.
